

The Chinese University of Hong Kong
Physical Education Unit
Arrangement on Online Teaching and Examination of Required and Elective
Physical Education Courses

To prevent infection by novel coronavirus, the Chinese University of Hong Kong decided to conduct online teaching from 17 February. The arrangement on online teaching of required and elective PE courses after class resumption is as follows:

1. As classes will resume on 17 February, the required and elective PE courses will be conducted online as scheduled by using Zoom.
2. The following items will be uploaded to the Blackboard by the course lecturer the day before the lessons:
 - Class note or video;
 - The link of the Zoom meeting;
 - Meeting ID;
 - Meeting Password.
3. Students should attend the online classes punctually according to their original class schedule by joining the Zoom meeting. Those who fail to attend the online classes, they can watch the recorded class video on the Blackboard after classes.

The arrangement on the examination of required and elective PE courses in the 2nd semester of 2019-20 is as follows*:

1. Courses assessment(100%) will include: Practical Examination(60%) + Written Examination(20%) + Attendance and Participation(20%)
2. Students can take the practical examination twice and only the best result will be counted.
3. Among the three items of the practical examination, students can take the same item twice or take two different items once.
4. In case the circumstances are not allowed for conducting face-to-face class before the term end, the course assessment(100%) will include: Article(40%) + Video(40%)# + Attendance and Participation(20%)

The examination arrangement maybe adjusted subject to the date of face-to-face class resumption.*
