

2023-2024 Inter-Collegiate Basketball Competition

Rules and Regulations

(A) Competition system:

1) The competition schedules will be prepared according to the inter-collegiate competition system of play announced by the Physical Education Unit Intra University Activities Sub-Committee.

(B) Rules: Only the particular rules stated as below, the game will be prescribed on the current international basketball rules

1) The game clock will run continuously during the game. The game clock will be stopped at the last minute of first, second, third periods and the last two minutes of fourth and extra period only. There shall be two minutes break between each period and five minutes break for half time interval.

2) The game ball will be used as recognized by the International Basketball Federation. (It will be provided at the competition venue.)

(C) Players: Each team shall consist of no more than twelve players entitled to play.

(D) Points:

1) Each winning team shall get two points and losing team shall get one point. The abstained or disqualified team shall get zero point. The winner shall be the team getting the highest points.

2) If two teams have the same points, the winner of the game between two teams will be carried to further round.

3) For the round robin system, if three or more teams have the same points, the relevant team's goal difference in the competition will be calculated for gaining the status to further round. If it still cannot distinguish the winner, all goals among the games in the competition will be calculated, the team with higher goals will be the winner. If the teams still have the same goals, they will share the prizes.

(E) Abstentions: if the team were unable to send the required numbers of players to start the game at the beginning of the first period, it will be regarded as abstained.

(F) Appeal: The judgment of the referee will be the final decision without any objection among the game matters. Matters of any protest should be submitted to the appeal board in writing within 24 hours after the game. The judgment from the appeal board is the final decision.

If there is any inadequacy among the regulations, the chairman of the organization committee has the right to revise it in anytime.

(Revised August 2023)